IHC - 4- POSTER MAKING /MEHANDI DESIGNING

Mehendi isn't just a trend; it's an age-old tradition deeply rooted in various cultures across the globe. Nowadays, people adorn their bodies with henna for fashion, self-expression, and even as a form of therapy. Mehendi designing competition was conducted on 19th August for girls of Classes 6 to 9 & 11 where the students enjoyed and came out with their creativity. On the same day Poster Making Competition was conducted for boys of Classes VI to IX & XI on the theme “Digital India”. The competition was an outlet to explore students' creative instincts.

IHC- 5-KALA KRITI- RANGOLI COMPETITION

“A kaleidoscope of colours & vibrant pigments.”

The IHC – KALA KRITI gave a chance to showcase the skills of students of grades 6 to 8 who exhibited their team spirit and came out with rhythms of colors & melodies of art.

The competition was conducted on Saturday, 26th August for classes 6 to 9 & 11.

INAUGURATION OF TECHTONIC LAB

On August 3rd, TECHTONIC LAB was inaugurated for 5th to 8th graders to grow into Coding Experts. The pride guests Ms. Saranya Sethuram & Ms. S. Pavithra Manoj commenced the opening ceremony.

PAIS felt its proud moment to host the MSSC Inter-School Football Tournament on 10th and 11th of August to develop Harmony and a Healthy sporting environment among the Schools. Nearly 19 schools and 46 teams participated to compete in this tournament. PAIS football players of the under 14 & under 17 categories were ice cool and won the match- a showcase of grit and composure.

ANUGRAHANS CELEBRATING INDIA'S FOOTPRINTS ON MOON!!!!

A small step for man and one giant leap for India! A very proud moment for all Anugrahans as they watched the live relay once again in the school as Chandrayaan 3 touched down on the moon, the mission that could cement India's status as a global superpower in space. Students shared their views on why it's such a big deal in the race to unravel the mysteries of the Moon's South Pole.
